

LEADING FOR THE FIRST TIME

Delivered by Lyndon Evans
Executive Principal, Aspire Academies Trust

Lyndon Evans is an Executive Principal with Aspire Academies Trust. NPQEL. Having devoted his career to primary education for over 20 years, he has extensive experience of leadership at the highest level. Lyndon is an experienced coach, mentor and programme lead facilitator with Best Practice Network, delivering on the NPQH and NPQSL courses, as well as an accredited ILM Level 7 executive coach and mentor. Lyndon is passionate about working alongside those whose job it is to ensure the very best possible outcomes for children.

Leadership training for those who have recently taken on their first leadership role.

Delivered by Lyndon Evans, with co-facilitators Bijal Shah, Aspire Principal and Rebecca Stevenson, Aspire Assistant Principal, this training will offer a wealth of content to give participants a thorough overview of what it means to be a leader and how to achieve maximum impact in school.

We will model, support and challenge new leaders to build their knowledge of leadership, as well as their personal leadership skills and behaviours. Built around the best research that has been written, it will include practical tasks and opportunities to apply new learning in the school context.

The course will also focus on ways to develop and grow as a confident and effective leader, with top tips for achieving and sustaining a manageable workload.

This training will be delivered face-to-face.

Dates: Thursday 25th November and Thursday 9th December

Time: 1.15pm-3.30pm on both dates

Venue: TBC (Bedmond or Hemel Hempstead)
