June 2022 “Growing Leaders, Growing Learners”

News There are some exciting opportunities coming up for early years soon, including the launch of the Early Years NPQ and the Early Childhood Hub at the Chartered College of Teaching. The start of the summer term has meant more face to face meetings and training, which is helping us reconnect with our colleagues. We were delighted to welcome early years ECT's to Ludwick a few weeks ago for training. We are keen to hear from outstanding early years practitioners who might be interested in becoming AEE's and supporting with training and peer to peer support. Please see more information below.

Early Childhood Hub

The Chartered College of Teaching has launched the Early Childhood Hub which hosts content by and for Early Years practitioners, with a focus on the pedagogy and practice of early childhood education. There are lots of great free articles and case studies with more being added this month.

Early Years NPQ

The National Professional Qualification for Early Years Leadership (NPQEYL) will be launching in Autumn 2022. This is a great opportunity for early years leaders to access an NQP which is fully funded. The qualification is for leaders qualified to at least Level 3 with a full and relevant qualification who are, or are aspiring to be, managers of Private, Voluntary and Independent nurseries, Headteachers of school-based or maintained nurseries, or Childminders with leadership responsibilities.

Alban Education Experts (AEE)

Are you an outstanding early years practitioner, middle leader or senior leader with an interest in leading early years development through peer to peer support or training? Please follow the link below to find out more about the AEE role or contact Lucy Parker at Acorns for more information.

Woodwork Training

We are hosting woodwork training on the 9th June. Please follow the link to book!
